

Paris Joy Steals the Spotlight in 'Almost Popular'

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, July 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Paris Joy, the talented actress known for her remarkable career that began at the age of six, delivers a standout performance in the film "Almost Popular." This coming-of-age movie, which stars Ruby Rose Turner and Reid Miller, has garnered rave reviews following its debut at the Dances With Films festival.

In "Almost Popular," Paris Joy plays June, a high school sophomore who, along with her friend Susie, embarks on a quest to join the elite POP Girls who rule their school. Her compelling portrayal of June's journey through the complexities of high school social dynamics has captivated audiences and critics alike.

Paris Joy's involvement in "Almost Popular" is a testament to her versatility and dedication as an actress.

Her performance in this film is the latest addition to an impressive portfolio, including commercials for major brands like Telstra, NSW Health, Target, Nikon, and SeaLife Sydney Aquarium. Paris has also been a regular presenter for Disney Junior and Nickelodeon.

Paris's dedication to her craft led her to the prestigious American Arts Film and Television Academy, where she co-wrote, produced, and starred in the short film "The Final Curtain Call," earning the Best Producer Award and Best Student Film at the Experimental Film Festival, as well as securing US representation with top LA agency, ASAP Talent.

Most recently, Paris has been cast in the proof of concept for a new TV show, "Queens of the Desert," where she will portray Valerie, an enchanting and intimidating character determined to dominate the pageant world.
