

CredHub Powers 365 Connect Platform With Integrated Rental Credit Reporting Services

The integration pairs CredHub's comprehensive credit reporting services with 365 Connect's leasing and resident platform.

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CredHub, the most complete and supported rental credit reporting service, announced today a strategic partnership with 365 Connect, the leading provider of AI-enabled marketing, leasing, and resident engagement platforms for multifamily communities across the globe. The integration pairs CredHub's comprehensive credit reporting services with 365 Connect's leasing and resident platform to deliver continuous financial benefit to property management teams and renters alike.

Following its mission to improve the financial success of the communities it serves, CredHub recently announced its Credit Reporting as a Service (CRaaS) Platform. This groundbreaking offering enables software applications to seamlessly submit consumer financial data to all three major credit bureaus, allowing businesses to enhance their customers' credit profiles with ease.

365 Connect, an innovator in the multifamily housing industry for over two decades, has launched a series of AI initiatives to empower communities to flourish in spaces where technology meets humanity. The company recently launched the most advanced lease document integration in the industry with provider Blue Moon, which serves over 8 million multifamily units. Through the power of artificial intelligence, the 365 Connect Platform is capable of building leases, addendums, and delivering move-in invoices to all necessary parties, within seconds of approval, without any human intervention.

By combining CredHub's robust services into our leasing and resident platform, we're poised to provide unparalleled value to both property managers and the residents they serve.

"CredHub and 365 Connect share a mission to provide services that benefit multifamily operators and their residents." said Steve Jarvis, CEO of CredHub. "The 365 Connect platform helps management teams to thrive through eliminating redundant tasks and reinventing operating models. We are excited to enhance those outcomes and improve the financial health of residents at the same time."

CredHub's CRaaS Platform redefines how businesses interact with credit reporting, providing a flexible, cost-effective solution that meets market demands and regulatory standards. By leveraging this service, companies can concentrate on their core operations without the burden of navigating the complexities of compliance and credit bureau reporting.
