Released in 1999, the iconic superhero film based on characters created by the self-taught surrealist writer/artist Bob Burden captured the hearts of audiences with its unique blend of humor, action, and quirky, second string, offbeat superheroes.

We are thrilled to celebrate the 25th anniversary of 'Mystery Men'. The film left an indelible mark on popular culture, and its message of embracing one's uniqueness is more relevant today than ever.”

The film, known for its ensemble cast of “wannabe” superheroes that are thrust into “the clutch” when the city’s primary superhero, Captain Amazing (Greg Kinnear) disappears, brought a fresh and comedic twist to the superhero genre, challenging traditional notions and inspiring audiences to embrace their individuality. Introducing such odd and whimsical characters as Mr. Furious (Ben Stiller), The Shoveler (William H. Macy), The Blue Raja, Master of Silverware (Hank Azaria), and the Bowler (Janeane Garafolo) who had a super-powered bowling ball with her father’s skull in it) the all-ages friendly story has aged well and gathered many new fans, many who weren’t even born when it came out.

San Diego Comic-Con is honoring this milestone, Highlighting these events is the 25th Anniversary of "Mystery Men" Panel on Saturday, July 27, 2024 with legendary comic book creator Bob Burden. The panel will offer fans an inside look at the film's creation and enduring legacy as Burden reveals inside details and personal experience in his battle to break into the Hollywood system, the option process, green lighting and moving forward into final production and release.

"We are thrilled to celebrate the 25th anniversary of 'Mystery Men' at San Diego Comic-Con," said Bob Burden. "The film has left an indelible mark on popular culture, and its message of embracing one's uniqueness is more relevant today than ever."

The panel is Mystery Men the movie: 25 years later, Saturday, 7/27/24, 8:30PM - 9:30PM, Room: 26AB. Burden will be available for autographs after the panel.
