

Geely Galaxy E8 by Geely Design Wins Platinum in A' Automobile Industry Awards

Geely Design's Innovative Electric Vehicle Recognized for Excellence in Automobile Design by Prestigious International Jury

COMO, CO, ITALY, July 24, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Geely Design has been announced as a winner of the esteemed Platinum A' Design Award in the Automobile Industry Awards for their exceptional work, the Geely Galaxy E8 electric vehicle. The A' Design Award is a highly respected and well-recognized accolade in the field of design and the automotive industry, celebrating innovation, aesthetics, and functionality.

The Geely Galaxy E8's recognition with the Platinum A' Design Award highlights its significance to the rapidly evolving electric vehicle market and its potential to shape industry standards. This achievement demonstrates Geely Design's commitment to creating vehicles that not only meet the needs of customers but also push the boundaries of what is possible in terms of design, technology, and sustainability.

The Geely Galaxy E8 stands out for its sleek and refined exterior, reminiscent of a poised tiger ready to pounce. The luminous front face, achieved through patented micro-hole laser engraving technology, creates an even light distribution without revealing the base color. The interior boasts an immersive 8K widescreen spanning 45 inches and AI-powered interactive features, offering a convenient and engaging user experience.

This recognition from the A' Design Awards serves as motivation for Geely Design to continue pursuing innovation and excellence in their future projects. The Geely Galaxy E8's success may inspire further exploration of integrating classic aesthetics with cutting-edge technology, setting a new standard for electric vehicles in the C-segment market.

The Geely Galaxy E8 was designed by a talented team at Geely Design, including Zheng Chen, Zi Ye, Jun Lu, Chuanxi He, Haibo Hu, Rong Ma, and Boqing Wu, under the guidance of Geely Automobile Holding (Shanghai) Co., Ltd.
