"The Gospel According to Tennessee" transports audiences to a simpler time, bringing to life the rich culture, deep faith, and strong family values of the South. Audiences can expect a journey filled with vibrant characters and powerful storytelling. Inspired by the real life of Lessie Henderson, the production weaves together elements of drama, humor, and music, delivering a powerful message of faith and perseverance.

This show is a celebration of faith, family, and the enduring spirit of those who overcame the prejudices and real trials of their day.”

K. Rebecca Martin

The show features an exceptionally talented cast, original music and a medley of songs from the time that complements the vibrant storyline. The stunning set design includes a replica of Backbone Rock, a historic landmark located between Damascus and Shady Valley Tennessee, where the story takes place. In true NarroWay fashion, it is a theatrical experience that not only entertains but also inspires and uplifts.

"The Gospel According to Tennessee" first premiered at NarroWay in 2008, but has not been on the stage since February 2019. A proven fan-favorite, the show has received numerous rave reviews in previous seasons and is now back and better than ever.

Dinner, included with the show, features down-home traditional southern favorites attuned to the setting. Southern fried chicken, macaroni and cheese, pinto beans, chow-chow, hot cornbread and butter and homemade blackberry cobbler are served by the performing cast with true southern hospitality.

NarroWay Productions, known for its commitment to excellence in faith-based entertainment, has once again created a show that resonates with people of all ages. The production company prides itself on presenting high-quality performances that reflect positive values and bring meaningful stories to the stage.

"The Gospel According to Tennessee" is a story of faith and perseverance
