The scholarship is open to single mothers across the United States who are either enrolled or planning to enroll in an accredited college, university, or vocational/trade school. Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 2.5 and submit an original essay of 500-800 words in response to the prompt: "Describe a significant challenge you have faced as a single mother pursuing higher education. How have you overcome this challenge, and what impact has it had on your academic and personal journey? Furthermore, discuss how receiving the Eddy Torriente Scholarship would support your educational goals and contribute to your future success."

Selection Criteria and Application Process

The Eddy Torriente Scholarship for Single Mothers has specific eligibility criteria. Applicants must:

1. Be single mothers, defined as women who are the sole caregivers for their children without a spouse or partner living with them.
2. Be enrolled or planning to enroll in an accredited college, university, or vocational/trade school in the United States.
3. Have a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale from their most recent educational institution.
4. Submit a 500-800 word essay responding to the provided prompt.
5. Complete and submit the official Eddy Torriente Scholarship application form, including personal information, academic history, and contact details.

Scholarship recipients will be selected based on the strength of their essay, academic achievements, financial need, and overall commitment to their educational goals. The deadline to apply for the scholarship is January 15, 2025. The winner will be announced on February 15, 2025.

Eddy Torriente: A Legacy of Service and Education
