

Eriza's Language School Awarded Contract by U.S. Embassy Manila for Tagalog Lessons

The U.S. Embassy in Manila has awarded Eriza's Language School a contract to provide group Tagalog classes and private Tagalog lessons to Embassy staff.

TAGUIG, MANILA, PHILIPPINES, August 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Eriza's Language School, a leading provider of Tagalog and English language instruction in the Philippines, today announced that it has been awarded a contract by the United States Embassy in Manila to provide group Tagalog classes and individual Tagalog lessons to Embassy personnel.

"We are honored to have been selected by the U.S. Embassy to help their staff learn Tagalog," said Eriza Cuizon, founder and lead instructor at Eriza's Language School. "Our proven track record of delivering high-quality, results-oriented language instruction to students from over 43 countries, as well as leading companies in the Philippines, made us the ideal partner for this important initiative."

Eriza's Language School has built a reputation for excellence, having been hired by leading organizations such as International School Manila, Sprout Solutions, Boskalis Philippines, and Shopee Philippines to help their expatriate executives and other personnel learn Tagalog. The school's proprietary curriculum and TEFL certified instructors have helped hundreds of students quickly and
