"NO VICTORY WITHOUT HISTORY"

Exploring, Uncovering, and Igniting Inspiration Through The Lens of Military History and Life"

Matt Canzone

Highlights Include:

- Live WW2 Battle Reenactments
- Authentic Military Artifacts
- Food, Face Painting, Balloon Animals, and More
- Meet a Real WW2 Veteran: Staff Sergeant of the 8th Infantry, who fought in four European campaigns, earned two Purple Hearts and a Bronze Star, liberated two concentration camps, and is nearing 100 years old.

This spectacular event will ignite your senses and offer a fresh perspective on military history. Immerse yourself in the action with professional military reenactors, authentic equipment, and vehicles, commemorating the battles of Hürtgen Forest and Brest.

Discover the rich history of Ohio, where three soldiers earned the Congressional Medal of Honor for their heroic acts during Pearl Harbor. Notably, Rear Admiral Isaac Campbell Kidd hailed from nearby Cleveland.

Why Attend? A 2020 survey revealed that most people prefer unmediated learning experiences with history through direct engagement with texts and artifacts. Our event caters to this desire, offering a hands-on, immersive historical experience. <https://www.historians.org>

War educates the senses, calls into action the will, perfects the physical constitution, and brings men into such swift and close collision in critical moments that man measures man. – Ralph Waldo Emerson
