In a world more interlinked than ever before, the future at stake is the one we share. It is no longer just about who will rise and who will fall. We will all rise or fall together. Our best hope is to pull together and work through common problems, across countries and issues. The UN SDG Action Campaign invites artists to submit artwork on the thematic priorities of Climate Action, Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment, Food Security, Peace, Youth Empowerment, and Digital Inclusion.

The current economic and social systems that are largely built on injustice and inequality must be rethought and recalibrated. Hundreds of millions of people are struggling to survive in a world that has never been wealthier. Our economies are failing us. We urgently need to look beyond profit, beyond the short term and beyond the interests of the few. The UN SDG Action Campaign invites artists to submit artwork on the thematic priority of Economic Justice.
