Signzy's One Touch KYC solution revolutionizes the traditionally slow and complex onboarding process by providing a seamless, quick, and accurate verification experience. With this partnership, Homelike aims to enhance the user experience and drive higher customer conversions. The One Touch KYC solution includes a liveness check on customers during onboarding, ensuring robust security and compliance with regulatory requirements. The liveness check is performed in seconds, significantly reducing the time required for verification, thus providing a smooth and efficient onboarding process.

"By partnering with Homelike, we are thrilled to bring our advanced One Touch KYC solution to a broader audience," said Ankit Ratan, CEO of Signzy.

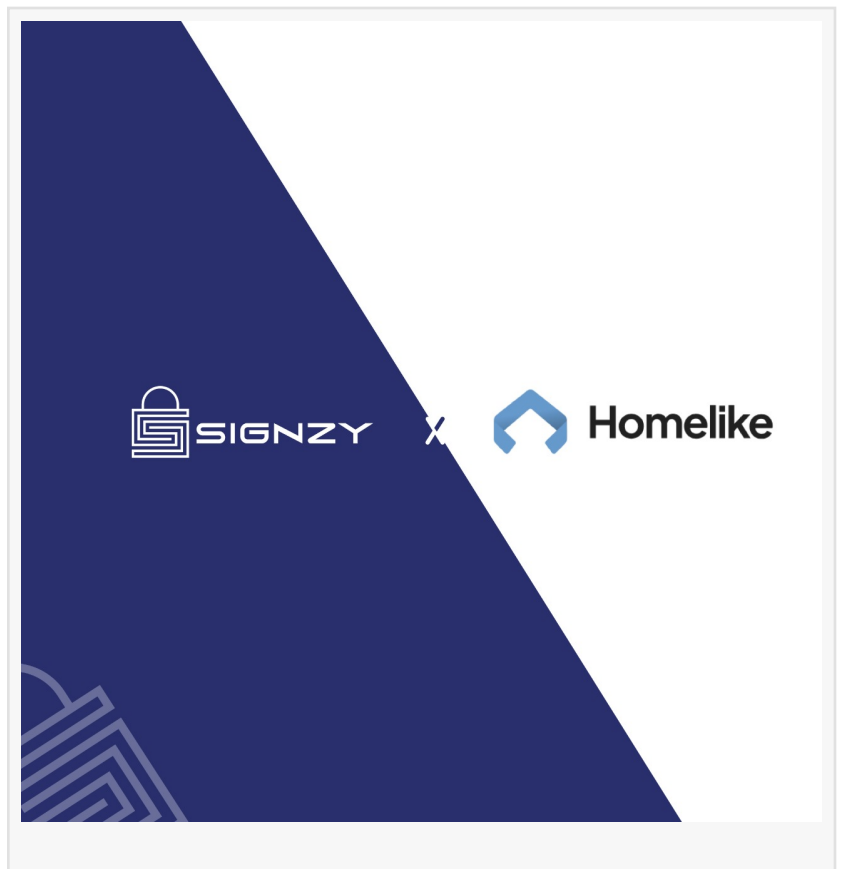

"We are delighted to collaborate with Signzy to integrate their One Touch KYC solution into our platform," said Bert De Roo, Head of Sales & Strategy at Homelike. "This partnership will enhance our customer onboarding experience, ensuring faster and more reliable identity verification while meeting regulatory standards. It's a significant step forward in providing our clients with the best possible service."

Homelike, known for its extensive platform that connects property owners with medium to long-term rental seekers, will now benefit from Signzy's cutting-edge technology. This collaboration is set to streamline their customer onboarding process, providing a faster and more reliable way to verify identities and meet compliance standards.
