

A Fairytale Wedding for Carolina Bride Guide Founder Katie Greder

CHARLOTTE , NC, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The go-to person in the Carolina market for brides, Katie Greder, recently had her own special day in the spotlight when her wedding was featured in the Summer and Fall edition of Southern Bride.

As the founder of Carolina Bride Guide, Katie, along with her husband, Wesley Murray, celebrated their wedding with unique touches that captivated readers and set new trends in the wedding industry.

The Carolina Bride Guide is the ultimate guide to help couples plan their big day. From curated experiences to the best vendors throughout the Carolinas, Carolina Bride Guide is a one-stop shop for everything wedding-related.

It was with this in mind, that Greder approached her own wedding which led to her feature. But first, the proposal.

The Proposal

Katie and Wesley, who attended the same high school but only met after working at the same company, had a magical proposal at Wesley's 31st birthday celebration during a Knights baseball game. With the help of the Knights mascot Homer, Wesley proposed to Katie on top of the dugout, creating an unforgettable moment witnessed by twenty friends and family members.

The Preparation

Known for her gracious hospitality, Katie meticulously planned every detail of her wedding to ensure it was a celebration not just for her and Wesley but for all in attendance. The event featured delightful experiences such as a pizza and southern food feast, games, and dancing, reflecting Katie and Wesley's personalities and love story. Katie's hands-on approach, supported by friends and family, showcased her expertise in wedding planning.

The Big Day

Katie and Wesley's wedding day was filled with unique touches and original moments, including flower dudes, a pizza food truck cocktail hour, and a caricature artist. Their playful nature shone through with a custom t-shirt toss instead of a traditional bouquet toss, and dinner entertainment included music bingo and a lively guest dance-off. The Knights mascot Homer even joined the celebration, adding to the joy of the day. In a touching tribute, Katie honored her late best friend Chelsea by including Chelsea's veil as her something borrowed and reserving a special seat at the head table for her.

From start to finish, Greder created the ideal wedding for herself, her groom, plus their family and friends. It's what she does best and it's why she's leading the way offering the same benefit to all getting married in the Charlotte-market.

Why This Matters to the Carolinas Market
