SAN MATEO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- A well-established accounting practice in Los Altos, California, is now for sale with an annual gross revenue of around $1,500,000.

Originally founded in 1954, it was then bought by the current owners in 1987. Over the last few decades, this practice has grown exponentially through word-of-mouth and client referrals. It serves a wide variety of businesses with approximately 700 clients, including high-net-worth individuals and small business executives. This is with a service mix of 90% tax compliance/preparation and 10% traditional write-up services. Average fees for tax returns are $1,990 for 1040 returns, $3,152 for 1120/1120S returns, and $2,800 for 1065 returns.

The practice is supported by a professional staff of four and several administrators, with the owners planning to assist with the transition before retiring, ensuring continuity for the buyer. The practice utilizes Ultra Tax for tax software and QuickBooks for accounting.
