“We are thrilled to bring people together to celebrate the power of democracy and inspire action ahead of this important local and national November 2024 election. The stakes couldn't be higher — our democracy, as well as human and civil rights, are on the line, and it's up to all of us to stay focused and do everything we can through Election Day to ensure victory for the local and national Democratic Party,” said Florida Senator and Miami-Dade DEC Chair, Shevrin Jones.

The Miami-Dade Democratic Party is focused on winning the local and national November elections.

The most populous county in the state of Florida, Miami-Dade, is a key bellwether for any election. From registering and mobilizing voters to recruiting and training volunteers, Miami-Dade Democrats are energized and putting in the work to elect Kamala Harris as the next President of the United States, re-elect Miami-Dade Mayor Daniella Levine Cava, and support a host of local candidates who share values of freedom and fairness at every level of the ballot.
