Growth Driver Of The Rhinoplasty Market

A growing number of road accidents is expected to propel the growth of the rhinoplasty market going forward. A road accident, also referred to as a traffic or motor vehicle accident, is an unexpected event involving one or more vehicles on a public road that damages property and causes injury or death. Road accidents are rising due to increased vehicle numbers, distracted driving, and inadequate road safety measures. Rhinoplasty is used in road accident cases to reconstruct and repair nasal injuries, restoring function and appearance. It addresses trauma-related deformities and breathing issues caused by nasal fractures.
