

Virginian Family Brings Their LEGO® Fan Expo Home This October with Two Stops

Calling all LEGO® fans

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, UNITED STATES, August 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --
The Beights, a Virginian Family, bring their sought-after LEGO® Expo - BrickUniverse - to Virginia this October with stops in Augusta County and Richmond

The highly anticipated BrickUniverse LEGO® Fan Expo, a traveling LEGO® fan expo that demonstrates how LEGO® bricks can be more than just toys but also tools for creating awe-inspiring art, is set to make its return to Augusta, VA on October 19-20 and debut in Richmond, VA on October 26. This exciting event, brought to life by a passionate Virginian family, showcases the limitless creative potential of LEGO® bricks and promises an unforgettable experience for attendees of all ages.

"We love watching kids and adults alike build masterpieces in our building zones; it never gets old," said Angela Beights, organizer of BrickUniverse. "LEGO® bricks have an incredible ability to bring people together and spark creativity in ways we could never have imagined."
