MobiFin is a Gold Sponsor at the Connected Banking Summit Ethiopia 2024. Learn how our next-gen digital banking solutions can help your bank succeed.

ADDIS ABABA, ETHIOPIA, August 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Digital innovation is the driving force propelling the Ethiopian banking industry forward. MobiFin, a recognized expert in core banking and digital financial solutions, backs the nation's digital transformation journey as a Gold Sponsor in Connected Banking Summit Ethiopia 2024.

The 15th Edition Connected Banking Summit - Innovation and Excellence Awards 2024 is set to be held in Addis Ababa on August 14th, with the concept of Bolstering the Economy with Digitization and Financial Inclusion.

The summit aims to deep dive into the significant change drivers, including mobile banking, AI and chatbots, payment security, digital banking, and the impact of blockchain and digital currencies.

This pivotal event by the International Center for Strategic Alliances (ICSA) unites 35+ leading bankers, 900+ attendees, and 20 industry partners, sharing insights, practices, and trends that will shape the Ethiopian banking space.

Team MobiFin is eager to contribute to these interactions and showcase its unified FinTech innovations, which empower banks and financial institutions to deliver exceptional customer experiences.

The Connected Banking Summit Ethiopia 2024 will include an insightful speaking session on 'The Future of Payments and Banking with AI' with Mr Amir Yazdanpanah, CBDO- Sales, MobiFin, as a speaker.

"Ethiopia's banking sector is undergoing a dynamic evolution, marked by immense potential for digital transformation," stated Amir. "We at MobiFin are excited to contribute to this growth story by sharing our vision for an AI-powered banking future at the Connected Banking Summit 2024. By working together, we can create a digital-first and resilient financial ecosystem that drives Ethiopia towards economic development."
