The award underscores the practical benefits of CC House's design, such as its seamless integration of indoor and outdoor spaces, energy efficiency, and adaptability to change.

Set in the lush surroundings of northern Kerala, CC House stands out for its minimalist yet striking design. The single-story, four-bedroom residence features two asymmetric C-shaped structures that mirror a central tree, creating a focal point that connects the walkway to the building. The dark-textured exterior complements the natural setting, while the open courtyard and wide sit-out blur the lines between inside and outside. Rubble masonry and glass windows with wooden frames contribute to the rustic yet modern aesthetic, reflecting the tranquility of the environment.
