

Immigration Attorney Mario Godoy to Teach Immigration Law Course at Waubonsee Community College

Immigration Law for the Paralegal

OAK BROOK, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, August 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago Immigration Attorney Mario Godoy will be teaching an Immigration Law course for paralegals at Waubonsee Community College during the fall 2024 semester. This course will provide students with an in-depth understanding of the complexities of immigration law and equip them with the practical skills needed in the field.

Mario Godoy Immigration Attorney

Attorney Mario Godoy, a respected authority in immigration law, brings a wealth of case and courtroom experience and knowledge to the classroom. His course will delve into the intricacies of immigration law, offering paralegals a comprehensive overview of the subject. Key areas of focus will include understanding the governmental agencies involved in the immigration process, navigating related websites, and analyzing common fact patterns encountered in immigration practice.

Understanding immigration law is essential for paralegals working in today's legal environment. This course provides students with skills needed to succeed in a challenging but highly rewarding field.”
