Michael, a tech entrepreneur from California, was looking to diversify his personal portfolio while providing his family with access to high-quality healthcare and education. Through Astons, Michael successfully obtained residency in Greece via the official Greek Golden Visa program.

The Greek Golden Visa program offers a balanced lifestyle with liberal societal values and high-quality public and private healthcare. Starting from €400,000, the program has recently seen updates in investment thresholds and zones, further enhancing its appeal. By securing Greek residency, Michael now enjoys visa-free travel within the Schengen Zone, which significantly boosts his business travel efficiency across Europe.

Michael shares his experience: "Astons provided unparalleled support throughout the process. Their expertise in navigating the complexities of the Greek Golden Visa program made the entire journey flow smoothly. Now, my family and I are enjoying the incredible Mediterranean lifestyle and I feel even more secure about our future."

Robert, a hedge fund manager from New York, aimed to diversify his investment portfolio and gain access to strategic offshore banking opportunities. With Astons' guidance, Robert acquired several luxury investment properties and citizenship in Dominica through the island nation's renowned citizenship-by-investment program.

Dominica, along with other Caribbean nations, offers citizenship-by-investment programs starting from $200,000—$250,000. These programs provide visa-free travel to numerous countries and access to offshore banking protections. The relaxed lifestyle and strong expat communities in the Caribbean make it an attractive destination for high-net-worth individuals seeking both personal and financial security.

Robert comments on his journey: "I'm extremely satisfied with Astons' handling of my Dominica citizenship application. Their streamlined turnkey

Astons' comprehensive approach ensures clients receive personalized strategies aligning with their investment goals, lifestyle aspirations, and family needs. The firm's global network of diverse and experienced professionals across numerous offices provides clients with local knowledge, accessible communication, and around-the-clock support.

"At Astons, our mission is to empower our clients with the best global mobility and investment opportunities," says Alena Lesina, a citizenship, residency, and real estate investment expert at Astons. "Michael and Robert's stories are prime examples of how our tailored services and deep industry knowledge can transform lives, providing security, freedom, and new avenues for growth."
