

The Inaugural House of Black Fundraiser

Uniting Voices and Celebrating Achievements

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, August 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The inaugural "House of Black" Celebration is set to take place on September 15, 2024, from 3 PM to 10 PM at the elegant La Princesa, located at 4121 N 59th Ave. Hosted by Desirae Lee Benson-Brockington and Earl Alexander, this prestigious event aims to honor the accomplishments within the black community while raising funds for essential causes.

House of Black Planning Team and Executive Members

Black Arizona and the Black Arizona State Council are proud to present this extraordinary evening. The fundraiser promises a blend of sophistication and heartfelt celebration, showcasing the achievements of outstanding individuals and organizations dedicated to the advancement of the black community in Arizona.

The House of Black aims to foster networking opportunities and raise funds for Black-owned nonprofit organizations and businesses. We are honored to be able to make this happen.”

TyShawn Douglas

Each ticket sale contributes directly to three carefully selected black-owned nonprofit organizations, recipients of the Black Arizona Grant, in addition to two deserving students who will be awarded the Black Arizona Scholarships. The organization was not only created out of need, it was also created out of love for the community. It is more than just an event, it's a movement to spark change and unite in excellence.

In alignment with the mission of the House of Black Fundraiser, attendees will also have the opportunity to support the expansion of the Black Arizona State Council, a nonprofit organization devoted to uplifting and empowering the community. Founder, TyShawn Douglas says, " At the House of Black, we simplify the process when it comes to applying for grants. No more traditional application procedures or fees, just straightforward access to essential resources."
