TIMES SQUARE, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Charles Dennis' captivating novels, "Balm of Angels" and "Hollywood Raj", have been featured in the heart of New York City's iconic Times Square. This prestigious recognition showcases Dennis' exceptional storytelling and the novels' unique blend of drama, suspense, and historical intrigue.

"Balm of Angels" is a profound exploration of personal and professional relationships set against the vibrant theatre scenes of London and New York during the 1940s and 1950s. The novel masterfully weaves together the tumultuous journeys of a group of theatrical luminaries, including Oliver Courtland, Alvin Spiegel, Lydia Hammond, and her son Rye. As their lives intersect and diverge, readers are drawn into a world of love, betrayal, and personal evolution, set against the backdrop of World War II.

In "Hollywood Raj", Dennis transports readers to the glamorous backdrop of 1930s Los Angeles, where the allure of Hollywood glamour collides with the shadows of espionage and international intrigue. The story follows Sir Osmond Radford, a former matinee idol and World War I flying ace,
