/EINPresswire.com/ -- Blue Sky Tunes, a leading indie label has announced that Dave Duncan, the Nashville-based musician and songwriter with a career spanning over five decades, has released of his latest album, Dubble.

Known for his clever songwriting and lyrical twists, Duncan continues to captivate audiences with his unique blend of American Roots and Blues, filtered thru the rich musical traditions of Nashville.

Dubble showcases Duncan's ongoing creativity and passion for music, featuring nine original tracks that seamlessly blend a variety of genres, including blues, rockabilly, New Orleans piano, southern rock, and upbeat rock 'n' roll. The album is co-written and produced with Grammy® winner Kevin McKendree and recorded at the renowned Rock House Studio in Franklin, TN.

Complimenting Duncan's distinctive style, Dubble includes guitar drummer Kenneth Blevins (John Hiatt, John Prine) and guitar phenom Yates McKendree and multi-instrumentalist Kevin McKendree, delivering a fresh and dynamic listening experience.

Dave has released five albums of original music and has numerous songs recorded by other artists. Notably, Curtis Salgado's rendition of Duncan's "Walk a Mile in My Blues" was awarded Blues Song of the Year 2017 by the Blues Music Foundation. Additionally, Salgado's album The Beautiful Lowdown, featuring six of Duncan's tracks, was recognized as the Soul Blues Album of
