

Hiland Dairy Adds Fresh Lactose-Free Milk to Its Lineup of Lactose-Free Products

SPRINGFIELD, MO, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hiland Dairy, a leader in the dairy industry known for its commitment to quality and innovation, is excited to announce that fresh lactose-free milk will join its lineup of lactose-free sour cream and lactose-free cottage cheese. These additions to the Hiland Dairy family offer delicious, high-quality options for lactose-intolerant people, ensuring everyone can enjoy their favorite dairy products without compromise.

Hiland Dairy's Fresh Lactose-Free Milk, produced daily, is set to cater to the growing demand for lactose-free dairy options, offering a fresh alternative to the UHT (ultra-high-temperature) processed options predominantly available in the market. Understanding the needs of consumers with lactose intolerance, Hiland Dairy has developed a fresh lactose-free milk that retains the natural and wholesome taste of fresh milk. Available in both whole and 2% milk options, these lactose-free varieties come in convenient gallon cartons, ensuring everyone can benefit from the 13 essential nutrients in milk.

"It's estimated that 30 to 50 million Americans experience lactose intolerance, which can make enjoying traditional dairy products challenging for them," said Sarah Carey, marketing manager at Hiland Dairy.

To better serve these consumers, Hiland Dairy has introduced new lactose-free options. These products offer all the nutritional benefits and taste of traditional dairy without lactose, thanks to
