Among the main brands launched were Rossario George, Rockefeller Desert Capital, Yacht Life Vodka, and Papi's Bourbon. A highlight of the trip was the introduction of a billboard dedicated to a 13-year-old warrior and rockstar named Sophia. This inspiring princess, a brain cancer survivor and competitive figure skater, exemplifies determination and resilience.

Sophia is supported by the KICK Cancer Foundation, which provides an athlete initiative scholarship program. This program enables young athletes fighting cancer to pursue the sports and activities they love, offering daily motivation and hope.

Looking ahead, Billboards Inc. plans to strengthen existing relationships and forge new alliances to drive future success. "We are so excited to embark on this cross-country trip together! This journey represents our commitment to growth and innovation, and we look forward to the opportunities that lie ahead. Guess what state we are going to next!" exclaimed the CEOs of Billboards Inc.

Next on the agenda are real business moves with a partnership with TEDx Huntington Beach and the launch of a new Billboard Miami Experience. Stay tuned for this huge surprise, spanning air, land, and sea.
