AI with ecfirst+
We are all at the start of a long journey ahead with AI. The ecfirst+ package provides an opportunity to jump-start AI initiatives at a low cost. With the ecfirst+ packages, you can now initiate or enhance AI projects with:
• AI Consulting: Insight on AI with guidance and consulting
• AI Policy: Development of a draft AI risk management policy
• AI Training: Addressing NIST AI and ISO AI guidance and standards

Policy & Procedure Review and Update
Do you need new policies for ransomware or online tracking, or would you like your policies reviewed and updated? The ecfirst+ packages range from less than $500 for Bronze to less than $2,000 for Titanium. You have the power to decide what is best for your organization.
Certification Training

ecfirst+ Subscription Packages include flexible consulting and certification training for HIPAA, NIST, CMMC, and more. The packages provide flexibility for consulting and certification training. With ecfirst+, you can also access gold-standard programs, including CHP, CSCS, and CCSA, as well as the newly launched DoD CMMC CCP and CCA certification training.

"ecfirst+ subscription packages are loaded with value for small and medium businesses across industries," said Ali Pabrai, Chief Executive of ecfirst. "ecfirst delivers cyber defense and compliance services to thousands of clients across the United States and globally. We learn and share industry best practices with every engagement. These experiences are reflected in the ecfirst+ packages at a low cost and provide flexibility to your organization for consulting guidance, policy or procedure development, and so much more."
