

AccuSourceHR acquires California-based Consumer Reporting Agency Frasco Profiles

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

AccuSourceHR, Inc., a leading provider of workforce screening solutions, including background checks, employment verification, identity verification, drug screening and occupational health services led by CEO Dan Filby, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Frasco Profiles, an employment screening organization headquartered in Burbank, California. With focus on client-centric customized programs and concierge-level support, Frasco Profiles is a legacy consumer reporting agency with over 29 years of dedication to affording quality service and expert care.

Many transitioning staff members have greater than 10 years of direct industry experience further expanding our team of highly knowledgeable subject matter experts.”

Dan Filby, CEO

“We’re excited to welcome new team members and valued clients to our organization, further strengthening their service footprint in the healthcare, staffing, government, education, transportation, and manufacturing industries.” said Mr. Filby. “Frasco Profiles has established long-term client relationships through its commitment to providing comprehensive, compliant screening services. Many transitioning staff members have greater than 10 years of direct industry experience further expanding our team of highly knowledgeable subject matter experts. Under AccuSourceHR’s leadership, Frasco Profiles clients will have access to expanded product options and new innovations while maintaining our combined organization’s overall commitment to promoting legal compliance and supporting best-in-class client service levels.”

Completing five successful acquisitions in the last three years, AccuSourceHR remains actively engaged in identifying additional investment opportunities in the background screening and the broader tech-enabled HR services market.
