

Longevity Couture's UltraHy™ Achieves Industry-Leading Certification from H2 Analytics

NEW YORK, NY, USA, August 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Longevity Couture, a pioneer in luxury wellness technology, proudly announces that its flagship product, the UltraHy™ hydrogen water bottle, has been officially certified by H2 Analytics, the leading U.S. laboratory for hydrogen testing. This certification confirms that UltraHy™ produces an industry-leading hydrogen concentration of 6210 ppb (parts per billion), setting a new standard in the market for hydrogen water bottle products.

H2 Analytics, renowned for its precision and expertise, utilizes advanced gas chromatography to measure the hydrogen concentration in water products. This method, currently the only one authorized by the International Hydrogen Standards Association (IHSA), ensures the highest level of accuracy and reliability. The certification from H2 Analytics underscores the superior performance of UltraHy™, making it a standout product in the hydrogen water market.

"This certification is a testament to our commitment to excellence and innovation," said Ivan Simetovic, Founder and CEO of Ultrahealth Technologies, the parent company of the Longevity Couture brand. "We have always believed in the transformative power of molecular hydrogen for enhancing health and longevity. Now, with H2 Analytics' certification, our customers can be even more confident that they are receiving the highest quality hydrogen water on the market."

H2 Analytics is a reputable testing facility approved by the IHSA, equipped with state-of-the-art gas chromatography tools. They provide comprehensive testing and certification services, ensuring that hydrogen water products meet stringent performance and safety standards.
