presentations, and networking opportunities. Attendees will walk away with a wealth of knowledge about industry trends, best practices, and how to overcome challenges.

“We are excited to meet existing clients face-to-face and to introduce ourselves to prospective new clients by sharing the power of press release distribution through our wire service,” said Jeremy Fields, VP of Corporate Development at Newsomatics, a Washington, D.C.-based news tech company that owns EIN Presswire. “EIN Presswire helps companies, brands, and organizations tell their stories by reaching millions with one click.”

EIN Presswire is one of the leading press release distribution services globally. Last year, more than 150,000 releases were distributed using the service. Its affordability offers businesses, individuals, and non-profits a cost-effective way to share their news and stories with a widespread audience. To send a release, click here.

Each press release distributed using EIN Presswire reaches a potential audience of nearly 200 million readers with one click. Releases appear on more than 200,000 EIN Newswires, AP News, 115+ U.S. TV station websites (ABC, NBC, CBS, CW and FOX affiliates), Benzinga, Google News, Bloomberg Terminals, 3,900 Affinity Group Publishing publications, and much more. Unlike competitors, EIN Presswire combines a press release distribution service with media monitoring and RSS feeds that are used worldwide by journalists, professionals, and businesses. EIN Presswire also provides clients with contact details to targeted publications and links to easily push releases onto social media platforms. Each feature-rich press release includes up to 2,500 words, three links, three embedded images, and one embedded video, which helps boost SEO.

EIN Presswire's website is easy to navigate, so press releases can be uploaded in a matter of minutes for same-day editorial review and distribution. The company's highly trained global customer service team is equipped to answer phone calls and online inquiries across multiple time zones 20 hours per day M-F.
