The "Private Japanese Lessons" given as part of this promotion are conducted by specialized Japanese language teachers and provide 45 minutes of one-on-one instruction per ticket. The schedule can be adjusted freely, accommodating all levels and needs from beginners to advanced learners, allowing even busy individuals to learn specific content as they wish.

With the current trend of a weaker yen making Japan an increasingly popular travel destination, there is a growing demand for casual Japanese language learning. Additionally, having a Japanese learner nearby often sparks interest in others to start learning as well. To convey the appeal of Japanese language learning easily, we are launching the "Friend and Family Referral Program".

Referrers must be current students who are enrolled in our group or private lessons, or alumni who have previously attended AOJ Language School. When applying, it is necessary to provide the referrer's student ID number and name.

Please feel free to contact them and take advantage of this opportunity to start learning Japanese affordably.
