The Dr. Ryan Sondergard Grant for Veterans is open to veterans of the United States Armed Forces who are currently enrolled or planning to enroll in an accredited educational institution. To be eligible, applicants must provide proof of honorable discharge or current service status. As part of the application process, candidates are required to submit an essay (500-1000 words) addressing the following prompt: "Describe how your military service has influenced your educational and career goals, and how receiving this grant will help you achieve them." Essays will be evaluated based on clarity, relevance, and the demonstration of a genuine need for the grant.

Dr. Ryan Sondergard believes that the experiences and skills gained through military service uniquely position veterans to excel in their academic and professional endeavors. By offering this grant, Dr. Ryan Sondergard aims to provide financial assistance to veteran students who demonstrate a strong commitment to their education and career development.

The deadline to apply for the Dr. Ryan Sondergard Grant for Veterans is May 15, 2025. The winner of the grant will be announced on June 15, 2025. The $2,000 award will provide valuable support to the selected veteran student, enabling them to further their educational and career aspirations.

Dr. Ryan Sondergard's dedication to supporting veterans stems from his extensive experience in mental health and his understanding of the unique challenges faced by those who have served in the military. Through this grant, Dr. Ryan Sondergard seeks to make a meaningful impact on the lives of veteran students, helping them to overcome financial barriers and achieve their full potential.
