“As the #1 Lifestyle Club in the country, Boca West Country Club is committed to securing a sustainable future and doing its part to preserve our beautiful tropical environment for generations to come,” said Matthew Linderman, CCM, President, GM and COO of Boca West Country Club. “From food & beverage to our golf operations, we are performing at the highest level of practice and are ranked #3 in the nation for our work.”

Vivid Leaf, in its assessment, noted nearly 50 best practices in place by Boca West, including a Chiller Plant to generate ice that is leveraged to cool the main clubhouse, solar panels, rationalized mowing practices, all-electric member golf carts, a vegetable and herb garden, LED lighting, an advanced recycling program, leveraging lakes for irrigation, and many more initiatives.

“Our goal is to reach near zero CO2 balance, and we are well on our way,” Mr. Linderman continued. “We have been implementing these measures for years, as part of our best practices, and it's gratifying to be recognized by the industry leader."

"Boca West's unmatched amenities and highest level of services have exceeded membership expectations for years. Its leadership and board's ongoing and innovative commitment to preserving our ecosystem while offering world-class membership experiences, has resulted in achieving our highest level of sustainability certification: the Vivid Leaf Sapphire ranking. Our team is excited to continue working with Boca West on its journey to becoming a net zero carbon emission club and to accelerate the club's grid independence," said Till von Ruexleben, COO at Vivid Leaf.
