

'2024 Flat Stanley Rides a Harley for Kids & Cops' Raises $92,420 to Benefit 15 Delray Beach Nonprofits

Cross Country Journey Raised Funds for Programs Supporting Children, Police and Animals

DELRAY BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, August 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Delray Beach resident Chuck "Big Dog" Halberg and riding partners John "Mad Dog" Looney and Jean "Jaboo" Alepin once again embarked on a charitable cross-country journey, raising $92,420 for 15 Delray Beach-based nonprofit organizations. The '2024 Flat Stanley Rides a Harley for Kids & Cops,' took place July 4-22, 2024 and fundraised for charities that focus on supporting children, police, and animals.

Halberg, a supporter of various South Florida organizations and owner and president of Stuart & Shelby Home Builders, took his first road trip to benefit kids and cops in 2011. Along with his former riding partner Jimmy Christe (in memory of), Halberg made it a personal mission to touch all 48 states in the continental United States over three road trips. The two accomplished this in 2018 and raised over $50,000 for local nonprofits in the process. In 2021, Halberg was joined by his new riding partners – as well as popular children's book character Flat Stanley – and raised $77,000 for 10 local nonprofits.

This year's trip included stops in Alabama, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, North Dakota, Missouri, North Carolina, among other. Fan could follow the trip at www.facebook.com/flatstanleyridesforcharity to view memorable moments with local police officers and K-9s, and to see visits to historic landmarks.
