

Credit One Bank Announces Fourth Year of One For The Community Program to Support Local Charities

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, August 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Credit One Bank — a leader in the U.S. credit card industry and a pillar in the Las Vegas community — announced that its One For The Community program will be returning for the fourth consecutive year. The initiative will again partner with Las Vegas Raiders defensive end Maxx Crosby and run throughout the 2024 Raiders regular and postseason schedule. The program will support Las Vegas-based charities The Maxx Crosby Foundation and the YMCA of Southern Nevada.

Last year, the program tracked points after touchdowns (PAT) converted by Raiders players.

We're proud to work with Maxx, the Raiders, and the YMCA of Southern Nevada as we tackle the need to address financial education in underserved communities.”

During the upcoming season, Credit One Bank will donate $2,000 for every sack made by a Raiders player during regular and postseason Raiders games. At the end of the postseason, donations will be split equally between The Maxx Crosby Foundation and the YMCA of Southern Nevada.

“This will be our second year partnering with Maxx Crosby and supporting The Maxx Crosby Foundation,” said Credit One Bank Community Reinvestment Officer Lenny Chide. “We're proud to work with Maxx, the Raiders, and the YMCA of Southern Nevada as we tackle the need to address financial education in underserved communities.

This program is a vital part of the Bank's commitment to giving back to the community.”

During the 2023 NFL season, the One For The Community program donated $2,000 for each successful extra point kicked by the Raiders and rounded the total up to $100,000.
