SARABHA - Worldwide Release on August 15th

In Celebration of India's Independence,
India's youngest martyr's story
"SARABHA" will have its worldwide digital release August 15th on Cpics.tv OTT Platform. True Story of Kartar Singh Sarabha - Young Hero of the Ghadar Movement. Beginnings of India's Freedom Movement from American Soils.

If you dare to dream, then be ready to sacrifice.
Sarabha is my dream;
Sarabha's dream was freedom. Our freedom.”

Kavi Raz

Kartar Singh Sarabha paid with his life for India's freedom, hanged by the British rulers at the age of 19 years.

From the award-winning, world-renowned director of the hit film "The Black Prince," Kavi Raz. After enjoying a successful worldwide theatrical release, Sarabha now comes to the digital world via Cpics.tv.

Quote from Kavi Raz:

"If you dare to dream, then be ready to sacrifice. Sarabha is my dream; Sarabha's dream was freedom. Our freedom."

About the Film

Epic, Heroic Untold True Story of India's First Independence Movement That Spanned Several Continents Across the Globe

The Ghadar Movement, as the very youthful Kartar Singh Sarabha, one of the leaders of the party, wrote in the first issue of their newspaper:

"Today there begins 'Ghadar' in foreign lands, but in our country's tongue, a war against the British Raj."

Key Excerpts from the Movement:

"What is our name? Ghadar."

"What is our work? Ghadar."

"Where will this Ghadar (Revolution) take place?.....In India."

"The time will soon come when rifles and blood will take the place of pens and ink."

Historical Context:

The Ghadar Movement was launched in the USA in 1913, in Astoria, Oregon, aiming to free India from British rule.

Over 8,000 men, mostly Punjabis, traveled back to India to fight for its freedom. Many were killed, jailed for life in the dreaded prison known as Kalla Pannee, or hanged mercilessly.

Central Character:

Kartar Singh Sarabha, an aspiring aeronautical engineer who studied at Berkeley University, became a forceful voice against the British and was hanged in Lahore Central Jail at 19 years and two months old.

His sacrifice inspired Shaheed Bhagat Singh to fight for India's freedom.
