Music has been Tony's refuge. His first two albums, Lost But Not Found and Beyond The Shadows, share stories of hardship and redemption. The third album focuses on hope and growth, marking a new chapter.

“

Music was my refuge, and now it's time to share my journey and the songs I've written with the world”

The funds raised through this GoFundMe campaign will directly contribute to:

- Equipment Purchase: Acquiring sound systems and instruments necessary for live performances, enabling Tony to fulfill requests to perform and reach new audiences.

- Album Production: Covering the costs of recording, mixing, and mastering the third album, ensuring that the music maintains the highest quality and emotional impact.

Tony shares: "With 50 original songs written, I have enough material to perform live for over two hours. However, without my own equipment, I'm unable to accept performance invitations, which limits my growth as an artist."
