

Welcome Back – The Coast is Clear on Florida’s Historic Coast

Florida’s Historic Coast Escapes Damage from Hurricane Debby

ST. AUGUSTINE, FL, US, August 8, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fortunately, Florida’s Historic Coast had minimal impact from Hurricane Debby, and all vacation business operations are normal. The end of summer and fall are favorite times of year to visit Florida’s Historic Coast as the weather and waters are warm, sunshine is abundant, there’s more elbow room on the beach, and we have unforgettable experiences and deals ready for all to enjoy an end of summer and fall getaway at St. Augustine, Ponte Vedra & The Beaches.

The 42 miles of beach on Florida's Historic Coast are available for all to explore.

While Florida's Historic Coast avoided a direct impact from Hurricane Debby, our thoughts are with those affected by and those still in the storm’s path. For information on how you can assist in the recovery efforts of Hurricane Debby, please visit the American Red Cross website at www.redcross.org.
