

Holiday Inn Express Nashville/Hendersonville Welcomes Guests Back with Extensive Upgrades

HENDERSONVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 8, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Holiday Inn Express Nashville/Hendersonville is thrilled to reopen its doors the week of August 3rd after undergoing full property renovations. Featuring 93 guest rooms and 1,200 square feet of meeting space, the hotel has been meticulously restored to enhance the guest experience.

In December 2023, tragedy struck the community when a tornado ripped a portion of the roof off the building and hit the area's electrical substation. Water poured in from the exposed ceiling, leading to extensive damage. Thanks to the quick action of the dedicated hospitality team, all guests and staff were safely sheltered in the ballroom, and no injuries were sustained during the disaster.

"Over the past few months, the dedicated Holiday Inn Express Nashville/Hendersonville team has been tirelessly rebuilding and enhancing our facilities. This challenge has only made us stronger, and we are more committed than ever to providing unparalleled hospitality to our valued guests and the local community," said Frank Amedia, Chief Executive Officer of Trilogy Asset Investments Inc.

The hotel has been closed in the aftermath, with all employees retained during construction. The reopening includes updates to every aspect of the property, ensuring guests a fresh and modern stay. Enhancements include new furniture, mattresses, light fixtures, curtains, and vanities in all guest rooms. The lobby and front desk area have also undergone a complete makeover, along with the ballroom, which now features new fixtures, carpet, and wallpaper. Guests can anticipate enjoying all amenities, including the pool, event space, and complimentary breakfast service.

The reopening marks a significant milestone for the Holiday Inn Express Nashville/Hendersonville and the local community, which has shown incredible support throughout the recovery process.
