Daryl started his career in 1995 when he partnered with his father, Gordon D. Ellis, Jr. CLU®, ChFC®, in his financial planning practice. Since that time, Daryl has worked tirelessly to further his knowledge of the industry and provide clients an exceptional planning experience. He said his goal is to help others gain peace of mind about their financial futures so they can experience more joy in the present and enhance their quality of life. With his personable nature and commitment to excellent service, he has earned the trust of many clients in Baton Rouge and across the U.S.

"I truly am honored to receive this recognition," said Daryl. "Our clients are great people, and my team and I work hard to take great care of them. They are the ones who make moments like this possible, and I'm grateful for the trust they have in me and our practice."

Ellis Insurance & Financial Group is located in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and provides comprehensive financial planning and investment services for individuals, families, and business owners.
