Terrifying videos of riots, murders, rapes, looting, and arsonists setting fire to houses, temples and shops belonging to Hindus are shared across social media platforms. Reports abound of Hindu women being tortured and raped. In one such a report, Hindu women narrated an ordeal, where they confirmed the rape of Hindu women in Bangladesh, saying: "They tied her mouth and raped her, they wanted to slit her throat, we gave our ornaments to save her."

BACKGROUND:

The ongoing jihad slaughter against Hindus in Bangladesh is particularly concerning as Hindus there were subjected to a genocide at the hands of Islamists 53 years ago.

The Pakistani army and its Islamist allies in Bangladesh committed a 10-month campaign of genocide in 1971 against the Bengali and Hindu communities in Bangladesh, then East Pakistan. Approximately 3 million people were killed and at least 200,000 women were raped. Most of the victims were Hindus. Around 10 million Hindus fled to India.

The genocide ended when the Indian army intervened and defeated the Pakistani army. The war also led to the independence of Bangladesh from Pakistan.

For decades, Hindus in Bangladesh have been subjected to summary executions, mob violence, rapes, desecrations of their temples, and other human rights abuses by Islamists. These abuses have forced them to leave their country.

Hence, the Hindu population has decreased from 31 percent in the 1940s to approximately 10 percent today.

The same Islamist forces are once again attacking Hindus in Bangladesh. Now that the democratically elected PM has been forced to resign and flee the country, the Islamist opposition is emboldened. And Hindus are in even greater danger.

We, Africans and Jews, express our solidarity and support for the Hindus in Bangladesh who are facing genocide. We urge the UN, the EU, the US government and the wider international community to intervene, stop the jihadists and protect the Hindus of Bangladesh.
