

Power Diary Introduces Insurance Claiming Integration for US Customers

Power Diary launches US insurance claiming integration, streamlining billing and payments with easy claim submission, tracking, and invoice linking features.

SALT LAKE CITY, UT, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Power Diary, a leading practice management software company for allied health professionals, is excited to announce its new insurance claiming integration, now available for customers in the US.

This integration streamlines the insurance claiming process, making it easier for healthcare providers to manage insurance billing and payments efficiently.

Once registration is completed, healthcare providers will be able to submit insurance claims and benefit from the functionality provided through Power Diary, including linking invoices to claims for easier payment updates, viewing the status of claims, and printing claims as PDFs.

"We're thrilled to share the news about the new insurance claiming feature, which simplifies the insurance claiming process for our customers in the US," said Danielle Hopkinson, Head of Brand and Communications at Power Diary. "This enhancement underscores our commitment to providing healthcare professionals with the tools and support they need to manage their
