LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 9, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Celebrated Grammy Award-winning artist Chrisette Michele has just unveiled her highly anticipated new single, "Home." Known for her unique blend of R&B, soul, and jazz, Chrisette adds an inspirational twist to her latest release, sharing a message of hope and perseverance."

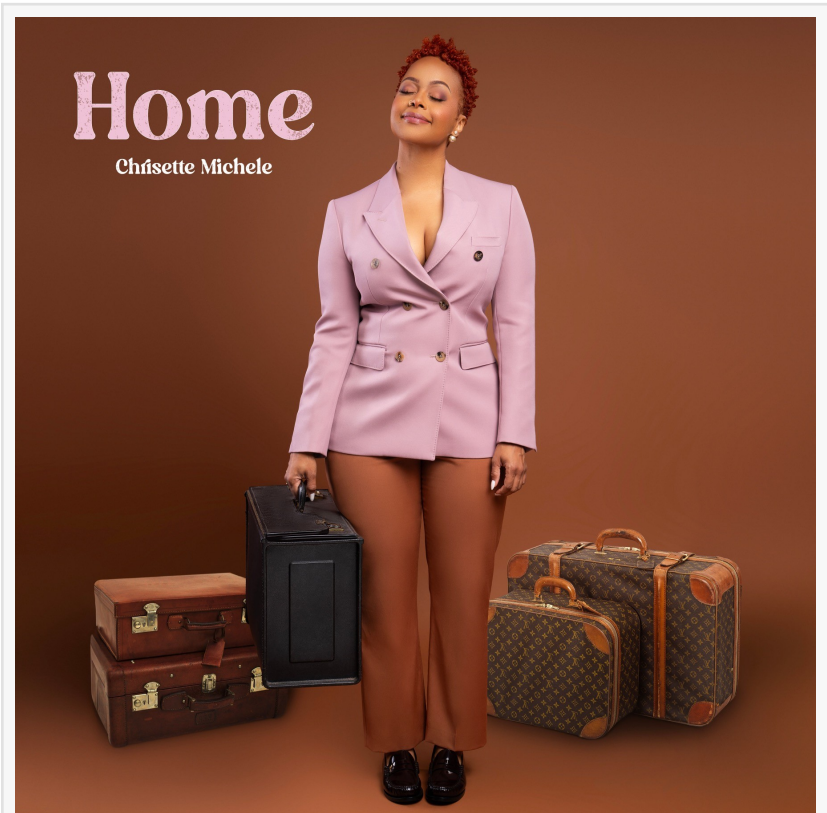

"As an artist, I often wait until I have the perfect words and melody to express my heart," Chrisette Michele explains. "There's no joy like finally finding the lyrics to share the lessons behind trials and the joy of overcoming. I finally feel brave enough to sing what mere words have never been able to fully express."

"Home" marks Chrisette Michele's return to the music scene after a four-year hiatus, bringing back her signature sound that fuses feel-good tunes, southern soul, jazz, and classic R&B.

The new lyrics came straight from heaven to my heart. I hope that people will feel the joy I feel in my heart and sing along."

The Long Island, New York native has been a fixture in the music industry for 18 years, and her latest single is a testament to her enduring artistry. Chrisette wrote "Home," while on the road with her band. "I released this song independently without a label. I'm returning to my roots, and I believe everyone yearns for the feeling of being truly at home with their authentic selves," Chrisette affectionately shares. "I'm returning to the sound of my first album, where live instruments took center stage. I hope to leave behind the challenges that earned me the label of resilience. Now, my focus is on the present, embracing my independence and staying true to my authentic self."

"The upbeat, horn-filled, soulful tunes will put a smile on anyone's face," Chrisette Michele continues. "The new lyrics came straight from heaven to my heart. I hope that people will feel the joy I feel in my heart and sing along. There's been enough heartbreak. Pain is just a season, it's not forever. I finally feel 'At Home' on the stage... I've waited for this feeling for a long time." Join Chrisette Michele in celebrating the journey of finding peace at "Home."

Catch Chrisette Michele live as she performs regularly across the country in the coming months. "Home" is now available on all major streaming platforms.
