

State of New Jersey Passes Good Dad Act, Following in the Footsteps of Florida's HB #775

The movement to ensure fathers have equal rights to their children is underway!

MIAMI, FLORIDA , UNITED STATES, August 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The State of New Jersey has taken a significant step towards ensuring equal rights for fathers with the passage of a version of Florida's Good Dad Act, Florida House Bill #775. The language in both bills mirrors each other, highlighting the importance of recognizing and protecting the rights of fathers in family law matters.

The New Jersey version of the Bill is #A2521, emphasizing the state's commitment to supporting fathers in their legal battles and ensuring fair treatment in child custody and family law cases.

The Good Dad Act Committee, led by Dr. hc Bernard Wh Jennings and his dedicated Team Leaders across the United States, is working tirelessly to pass the Good Dad Act Bill in every state within the United States. Their efforts aim to provide fathers with the legal support and resources they need to navigate child custody and family law issues, ensuring that fathers gain equal rights under the law.
