/EINPresswire.com/ -- Jobma, an AI video interviewing platform, today announced its new integration partnership with Manatal's next-generation AI recruitment software.

Manatal is used by hiring teams and recruitment agencies to source and hire candidates faster.

Manatal is used by hiring teams and recruitment agencies to source and hire candidates faster.

Jobma says its integration with Manatal's comprehensive talent acquisition suite simplifies complex hiring practices in the industry - allowing recruiters to focus on strategic initiatives rather than administrative tasks. Recruiters will be able to assess candidates efficiently with Jobma's ethical AI solution, evaluate interview results, and collaborate without needing to switch platforms.

By combining Jobma's AI video interviewing with Manatal's talent acquisition suite, we're confident in our ability to redefine the hiring process and deliver exceptional value to our customers.”
