CHANDLER, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, August 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Open Source Integrators, a leader in custom business software solutions, and Pragmatek, renowned for operational improvement and ERP application capabilities, are pleased to announce their merger, effective immediately.

This strategic merger combines the strengths of both companies to deliver unparalleled ERP solutions and business process enhancements. Open Source Integrators brings extensive expertise in Odoo ERP implementation, while Pragmatek offers comprehensive IFS ERP software and Enterprise Managed Services. The combined firm emerges as a leader in the ERP services market, enhancing field service and supply chain offerings while broadening the technology offerings of both firms. Together, Open Source Integrators and Pragmatek boast over 100 consultants focused on addressing digital transformation needs with industry-leading ERP partners.

“This merger marks a significant milestone for us, combining decades of business and technology experience with new partnerships, skill sets, and processes,” said Greg Mader, CEO of Open Source Integrators. “Together, we will provide clients with enhanced capabilities and innovative solutions driving business growth and efficiency.”

“As soon as we met the Open Source Integrators team, we quickly understood how merging firms would result in a stronger company, increasing capabilities and offering employees new avenues for advancement while working on mission-critical client projects”, said Steve Bloom, CEO of Pragmatek.

Clients can expect improved operational efficiencies, a broader range of services tailored to meet
