Why Spartan Vacations Supports Kids Beating Cancer

Spartan Vacations Donating check to Kids Beating Cancer

With the support of the local community, Kids Beating Cancer aims to build a Children's Center that will be more than just a haven. It will be a beacon of hope and healing for families facing the same journey. Together, Kids Beating Cancer, Spartan Vacations, and VOA Worldwide believe we can build a day when every child can experience the joy of life before dying.

We don't want parents of children diagnosed with Cancer or one of 80 malignant or non-malignant life-threatening diseases to hope for a cure to change a child's and parent's life. Kids Beating Cancer and their sponsors want to be a part of finding a cure.

Kids Beating Cancer strives to remove barriers that prevent families from accessing life-saving treatments, the best and only hope for a cure for their child. This organization stands up for these special children and their families who only want what every parent wants for their child: health, survival, and a cure for Cancer. The urgency of this cause should motivate and inspire us to act now.

With their combined donation, Spartan Vacations and VOA Worldwide have cemented their support of The Villages Chapter of Kids Beating Cancer, both now and in the future. We recommend anyone interested in supporting these children and their families contact the organization directly at <https://kidsbeatingcancer.com>
