

Huddle House Franchise Signs New Agreement in Hartselle, Alabama

All-day breakfast franchise continues to grow in the Yellowhammer state with local entrepreneur HARTSELLE, AL, USA, August 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Huddle House, the iconic breakfast franchise beloved for serving any meal, any time since 1964, recently signed a new franchise agreement for Hartselle, Alabama.

The Morgan County area restaurant is slated to open by the end of this year, and will be owned by Anthony Ricks, a local entrepreneur and distinguished member of the Hartselle community. The Hartselle Huddle House is located at 1802 Main St. E. by I-65.

"Huddle House has always been a part of my life growing up. It's a place where family and friends gather, creating lasting memories over great food. The brand's family-oriented nature makes it a true community staple," said Anthony Ricks, Owner of the Huddle House franchise in Hartselle. "I've dedicated my life to serving others in the military and law enforcement, and I'm thrilled to continue that service through Huddle House. We're passionate about what we do, and we want the community to know how much we care."

Prior to Huddle House, Anthony Ricks served as a police officer for more than 15 years. He also served in the military. His latest career change places him as a business owner with an iconic brand that continues to grow.

"We are thrilled to welcome Anthony to the Huddle House team. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated a passion for serving others and expressed his commitment to making guests feel
