

Joltz Wins First Place at the Layer 2 Scaling Pitch Competition at Bitcoin 2024 Conference

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, USA, August 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joltz, a pioneering Bitcoin infrastructure company, has secured a First-Place prize at the prestigious Layer 2 Scaling Pitch competition held during the Bitcoin 2024 Conference in Nashville.

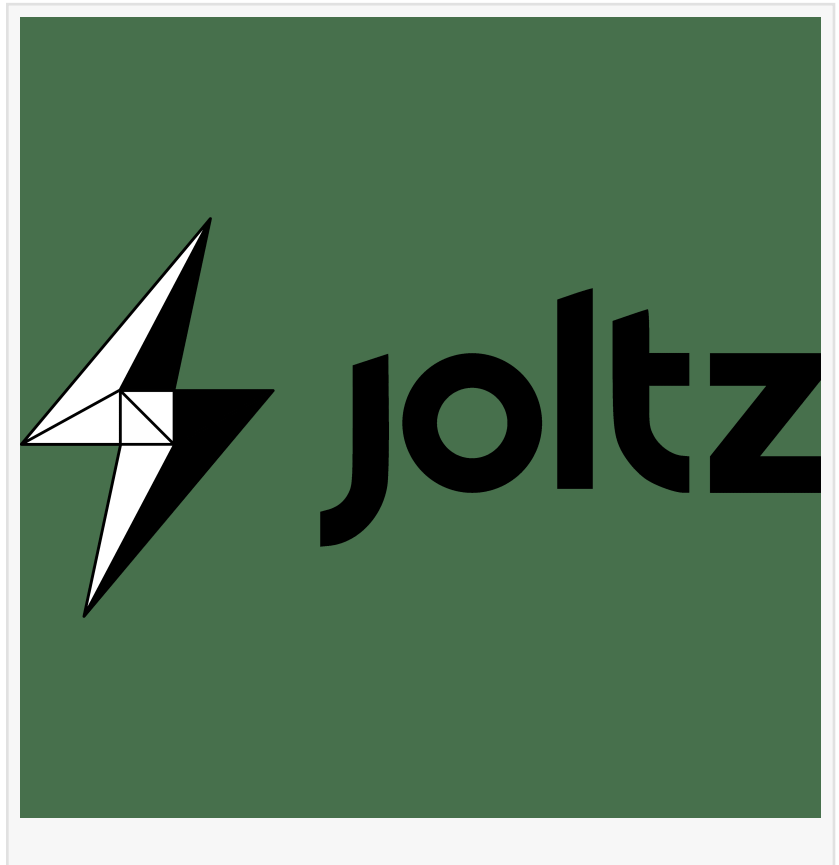

The event, which took place from July 25-27, saw participation from leading innovators and visionaries in the cryptocurrency space, with keynote speeches from prominent figures including former President Donald Trump, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Cathie Wood, Michael Saylor, Vivek Ramaswamy, and Edward Snowden.

Ahead of this win, Joltz has been at the forefront of transforming how companies interact with the Bitcoin Blockchain by making it easier for businesses to participate in and benefit from Layer 2 solutions on Bitcoin. Layer 2 solutions are vital for scaling Bitcoin and making it accessible for widespread adoption in various sectors, including finance, retail, and technology. These are three areas in which Joltz has focused on improving speed, cost-efficiency, and accuracy for better mainstream adoption.

"Joltz's technology provides a scalable and efficient solution for businesses looking to leverage the power of Bitcoin. We remove the complexity and simplify the connection to the Bitcoin Blockchain, opening up new possibilities for innovation and growth. This award is an outward demonstration of our innovation and we are so proud of our team and excited to have won first place," said Ian Major, Joltz Co-founder.

Winning the Layer 2 Scaling Pitch competition underscores Joltz's unique position in the Bitcoin ecosystem. This achievement not only validates the company's fresh approach to Bitcoin but also sets the stage for future collaborations and developments. As Bitcoin continues to grow and integrate into mainstream financial systems, solutions like the ones offered by Joltz will be instrumental in facilitating a seamless transition and provide greater speed-to-market for consumers.
