

Tribal Health Earns Gold Seal of Approval from Joint Commission

Healthcare staffing company elated to earn confirmation of quality care a second time

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, August 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tribal Health, the industry leader in healthcare solutions for Native American communities, announced it earned The Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval® for Health Care Staffing Services (HCSS) Certification this summer for a second time. As the nation's premier quality improvement and accrediting institution, the Joint Commission evaluated Tribal Health's compliance with standards spanning several areas that included leadership, human resources management, performance measure and improvement, and information management.

Tribal Health President Whittney LaCroix stated the findings were a testament to the quality of the healthcare professionals Tribal Health provides to client facilities.

"Earning the Gold Seal is especially rewarding as it affirms our ongoing commitment to patient safety and quality care," LaCroix stated. "Through sustained collaboration, we have crafted an ecosystem of policies and practices that ensures our teams provide skilled and compassionate care. Our performance improvement programs have transformed our client facilities, increasing operational efficiencies to connect more patients to exceptional clinical services. This was our second consecutive survey with zero findings or areas for improvement – and we are so proud of our team."
