Definition:

Visa outsourcing services refer to the practice of organizations outsourcing certain aspects of their visa and immigration-related processes to third-party service providers. These service providers specialize in navigating the complex legal and administrative requirements associated with obtaining and managing visas for foreign employees, expatriates, and other individuals who need to travel or relocate to another country for work, study, or other purposes.

Market Trends:

The globalization of businesses and the increasing need for skilled talent from around the world were driving the demand for visa outsourcing services. Organizations sought to navigate complex immigration processes to facilitate the movement of employees across borders.

Market Drivers:

The expansion of businesses across borders and the need to tap into international talent pools were driving the demand for visa outsourcing services. Organizations required assistance in navigating the legal and administrative complexities of relocating and hiring employees in different countries.

Market Leaders & Development Strategies:

On 6 July 2023, Cox Communications Completes Acquisition of Unite Private Networks. Cox Communications has completed the acquisition of commercial fiber provider, Unite Private Networks (UPN). UPN and Cox-owned Segra will form a new standalone fiber company to accelerate growth in the company's commercial fiber solutions.
