MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BMG Money today announced

Since 1915, The National Fraternal Order of Police has grown to become the world's largest organization of sworn law enforcement officers, with more than 373,000 members in more than 2,200 lodges. Dedicated to improving the working conditions of law enforcement officers, the FOP continues this commitment by working with BMG Money, helping to provide access to emergency loans, free financial tools, and affordable loan solutions across the United States.

Financial stability is a growing concern for many individuals as total household debt reaches record highs. Compounding this challenge, half of Americans who've applied for a loan or financial product since the Federal Reserve began raising interest rates in early 2022 have been denied. As a result, some customers, who have been denied for conventional loan products, have increasingly used high-priced alternatives, putting them even further at risk.

Chad Jorgensen, Senior Director, Partnerships at BMG Money, said, “BMG Money is actively concerned about the growing number of decent, hardworking public sector employees caught on the treadmill of predatory loans. To solve this challenge, we are proud to offer organizations like The National Fraternal Order of Police access to innovative and socially responsible financing as an employer-sponsored voluntary benefit. We look forward to supporting their members and helping alleviate financial stress.”

Since it was founded, BMG Money has partnered with over 100 private companies and local, county and state government bodies, and provided access to thousands of responsible loans totaling more than $4 billion. For more information about BMG Money Program, visit www.bmgmoney.com/loansatwork.
